

Penn Valley Constructors, Inc.

Construction at Burlington Lincoln Mercury involved alterations to the write-up and customer waiting areas, an expanded outside car inventory area and a complete revamp of the existing exterior facade. In addition to the facade renovation, a large tower was constructed in front of the existing showroom. The facade and tower received decorative porcelain and granite tiles, aluminum cladding and architectural aluminum panels all accentuating the bold new look.

BURLINGTON LINCOLN MERCURY

Dennis Zawalich, Owner
Burlington, New Jersey
18,700 Square Feet
Automobile Showroom
Steven C. Tiberio, Architect
Completed 2004

"Partners in Excellence"