

Penn Valley Constructors, Inc.

This two phase project started with the removal of the existing dilapidated masonry bearing building while protecting and maintaining two partitions on either end of the curing operation.

The newly constructed building consists of a pre-engineered steel frame with a standing seam pre-finished insulated panel roof and walls on both the interior and exterior of the building creating four new kilns.

OLDCASTLE PRECAST

George Hand, Operations Manager

Croydon, Pennsylvania

18,584 Square Feet

Curing and Storage Areas for Pre-cast Concrete Piping

kd2 Architects

Completed 2017

"Partners in Excellence"