

Penn Valley Constructors, Inc.

Above: Maintenance Area
Below: Secured Parts Storage Area

Reilly Sweeping's new home for their fleet of state of the art street sweeping machines consists of two buildings; a 4,000 square foot office building featuring exterior split faced masonry walls and a standing seam roof and an 8,000 square foot maintenance building, which houses a secured parts area with storage mezzanine, wash bay, and compressed air system for servicing the street sweepers.

REILLY SWEEPING

Pat Reilly, Owner

Fairless Hills, Pennsylvania

12,000 Square Feet

Office and Maintenance Building

Wiedmann-Zelig Group, Architects

Completed 2005

"Partners in Excellence"